(A) TRAIN from Prague to Horažďovice (Approx Fare: 222Kc, Approx 3 hours)

Praha Hlavní Nádraží (Prague Main Train Station) to Horažďovice předměstí (Horažďovice předměstí Train Station).

You can search for train times here: <http://jizdnirady.idnes.cz/vlaky/spojeni/>

* There is an English version of this website accessible by clicking on the British flag toward to the bottom right side of the page.

Notes about taking the train to ArtMill:

* There are no direct trains from Prague to Horažďovice. Trains usually go through the town of Plzeň (Home of Pilsner Urquell Beer!)

*Purchase tickets (jizdenky) inside the train station or pay a surcharge on the train. Look for the counters that sell domestic tickets (vnitrostátní jizdenky).

* Please be advised there are 2 train stations in Horažďovice: Horažďovice Železniční stanice and Horažďovice předměstí. You should travel to Horažďovice předměstí.

- * Train departure times are PUNCTUAL in CZ.
- * Normally, train stops are NOT verbally announced on Czech Railways and signage on platforms is often not easy to see from the train. For best results, refer to your scheduled arrival time to assist you in determining that you have arrived at your destination.
- * We recommend taking the direct bus to ArtMill rather than the train because train connections can be tight and the Plzeň train station can be confusing for newcomers. Missing your connection can really be a downer.

<http://www.livingprague.com/htmetro.htm>

- * Ticket machines exist at the airport, in all metro stations and select tram stops and trafika (newsagent) kiosks/shops in the city. You can also buy a ticket via SMS on your phone.
- * Tickets MUST be validated (punch ticket into little yellow or orange box on buses/trams or before escalators on metro until you hear the timestamp engage.)
- * Single-journey (32Kc, 24Kc) and 1 – 3-day passes are available
- * Be advised that unless you have a 1-3-day pass, your LUGGAGE also needs a ticket (16Kc) on the Prague Metro/Tram/Buses. This technicality is not widely known nor readily enforced BUT it is official and the Transit Police can fine you without a validated luggage ticket.
- * If you need to take a taxi in Prague, don't hail one on the street. There are some taxi stands but taxis are generally arranged in advance by phone, SMS or online. One reputable company is AAA (Phone: 222.333.222, Rates start around 15Kc/km. Meters should always be used). Operators speak English or Czech. <http://www.aaataxi.cz/index.php?xSET=lang&xLANG=2>
